or to Savings Account)

Monthly Expenses

Living

Cost of apartment, utilities and internet - unless living in the dorm. If so monthly cost is $0 because it has all been paid in direct costs.

Transportation

Cars include insurance and gas money. Amounts are in info. charts. If no car how much is a bus pass or other transportation option.

Food/Misc.

Option 1: Food on sale; essential toiletries- $150
Option 2: Food not on sale; nicer toiletries- $250
Option 3- (only if living on campus) $80 for snacks, drinks, and toiletries.

Other Bills

Cell phone

Monthly Balance: Income- Expenses

Let's go through the semester...

January- We did our start of semester. The rest of the month is normal. .

Keep track of an additions/subtractions to your savings account each and if you have extra $$ after monthly expenses.

Calculate your savings and your cash amounts at the end of the month.

February- LIFE HAPPENS

Jenny- Someone stole $300 from you-subtract $300 (one time)

Robert-You got sick and had to go to the doctor- Subtract $35 co-pay (one time)

Gail-Your grandparents are going to start sending you $40 a month! (monthly)

March

MID TERMS- You need more snacks and caffeine.

- A. Get free ones from mid-term student activities B. Spend an extra $30 for snacks from the store.

Jenny

Spring Break- Stay on campus, go home, go on Spring Break Trip? If you go home subtract $100. If you go on a Spring Break Trip subtract $500.

Gail

Spring Break- Stay in apartment, go home, go on Spring Break. If you go home subtract 100. If you go on Spring Break Trip subtract $500.

Robert

Spring Break- Stay in apartment, go home, go on Spring Break. If you go home subtract 100. If you go on Spring Break Trip subtract $500.

April-LIFE HAPPENS

Jenny

Subtract $75 (one time)

Robert

Uh Oh! You got a flat tire.
Subtract $50 (one time)

Gail

The power went out and you had to replace some food.
Subtract $75 (one time)

May-End of semester Balance

	End of Semester Costs	Cash	Savings
Jenny	$	$	$
Robert	$	$	$
Gail	$	$	$

If moving back home you must subtract $150 for transportation costs.

If you have an apartment it is usually a 12 month lease. How much will that cost during June, July, and August?
